Bethel Place staff and Board welcome the opportunity to improve their services to the best of their ability and within budgetary constraints.

It is expected that from time to time complaints arise as a result of the changing needs and circumstances of our residents, clients and community.

The complaint process guides individuals who have a concern or complaint with:

- services provided by BMCSI
- another resident
- an employee
- their Tenancy Agreement.

WHO CAN MAKE A COMPLAINT

Anyone who has a concern can report a complaint. For complaints that relate to harassment, discrimination or violent behavior please refer to the BMCSI Respectful Community policy.

HOW TO MAKE A COMPLAINT

- In person
- by telephone

As soon as possible but within two weeks of the incident speak directly with:
